

Terms of Use for Imaano: Islamic Kids Stories

Effective date: August 4, 2026

These Terms of Use ("Terms") apply to your access to and use of Imaano: Islamic Kids Stories ("Imaano" or the "App"), provided by Mustafa Şafaktepe, an individual developer based in Türkiye ("we," "us," or "our").

By downloading, accessing, or using Imaano, you agree to these Terms. If you do not agree, do not use the App.

1. Apple Standard EULA

Imaano is distributed through Apple's App Store and is licensed, not sold, to you.

Your license to use the App is governed by Apple's Standard Licensed Application End User License Agreement ("Apple Standard EULA"). These Terms supplement the Apple Standard EULA with information specific to Imaano, including its subscriptions and content.

If these Terms conflict with the Apple Standard EULA or Apple's applicable App Store terms, the Apple terms will control to the extent of the conflict. Nothing in these Terms limits any mandatory consumer rights that cannot legally be excluded or restricted.

2. Who May Use the App

Imaano is designed for families and provides Islamic stories intended for children. A parent or legal guardian should supervise a child's use of the App.

You must be legally capable of agreeing to these Terms. If you allow a child to use Imaano, you are responsible for supervising that use and for any purchases initiated on your device or Apple Account, subject to Apple's purchase controls and applicable law.

The App does not require account registration or sign-in.

3. App Content and Access

Imaano provides written stories, audio narration, illustrations, previews, and related educational and entertainment content. Available content, languages, features, and presentation may change as the App is updated.

Some content may be available without payment, including limited previews or a free story. Access to the full story library and premium features may require an active subscription.

The App's stories are provided for general educational, cultural, and entertainment purposes. They are not a substitute for professional religious, legal, medical, educational, or other specialist advice. Parents and guardians remain responsible for deciding whether particular content is appropriate for their children.

We aim to keep Imaano available and functioning correctly, but we do not guarantee that every story, audio file, language, or feature will always be available without interruption. Maintenance, technical problems, legal requirements, content improvements, or service-provider changes may occasionally affect availability.

4. Subscriptions and Free Trials

Imaano may offer auto-renewable monthly and annual subscriptions through Apple's in-app purchase system. The exact subscription options, billing period, price, currency, included access, and any introductory offer are displayed in the App and on Apple's purchase-confirmation screen before you subscribe.

Automatic renewal

Subscriptions renew automatically for the same subscription period unless you cancel them through Apple before the renewal date. Apple charges the payment method associated with your Apple Account according to the price and billing terms shown at purchase.

You can view, manage, or cancel your subscription through your Apple Account subscription settings. Deleting Imaano does not cancel an active subscription.

If you cancel, you will normally retain premium access until the end of the period already paid for, unless Apple's applicable terms or local law provide otherwise.

Seven-day free trial

Eligible users may be offered a seven-day free trial with an annual subscription. Trial eligibility is determined through Apple. A trial automatically converts to the applicable paid annual subscription at the price shown before confirmation unless it is cancelled through Apple before the trial ends.

Not every annual subscription option includes a free trial. If the selected offer does not show a trial on Apple's purchase-confirmation screen, payment begins immediately upon confirmation. The offer and price displayed by Apple before purchase are the controlling purchase terms.

Prices and changes

Subscription prices may vary by country or region, currency, taxes, and Apple's App Store pricing. The current price shown in the App and on Apple's confirmation screen applies to your purchase.

Any change to the renewal price of an existing subscription will be handled by Apple under its applicable rules, including any notice or consent Apple requires.

5. Purchases, Restoration, and Refunds

All purchases, billing, subscription management, cancellations, and refunds are processed by Apple. We do not receive your payment-card details or Apple Account password.

You can use the App's Restore Purchases feature to restore eligible purchases associated with the same Apple Account. Restoration depends on Apple's services and the availability and status of the relevant transaction.

Refund requests must be submitted to Apple and are governed by Apple's policies and applicable law. We cannot directly issue App Store refunds.

6. Acceptable Use

You may use Imaano only for lawful, personal, and non-commercial purposes in accordance with these Terms and the Apple Standard EULA.

You must not:

- copy, reproduce, republish, sell, sublicense, distribute, publicly perform, or commercially exploit the App or its stories, audio, artwork, or other content except where expressly permitted by law;
- remove or alter copyright, trademark, or other ownership notices;
- attempt to reverse-engineer, modify, interfere with, damage, or gain unauthorized access to the App or its supporting systems, except to the extent such restriction is prohibited by law;
- bypass or attempt to bypass previews, subscription checks, access controls, or security measures;
- use automated tools to scrape, extract, download, or systematically collect App content; or
- use the App in a way that violates applicable law or the rights of another person.

7. Intellectual Property

Imaano, including its software, design, branding, stories, translations, audio, illustrations, and other content, is owned by us or used under permission and is protected by applicable intellectual-property laws.

Subject to these Terms and the Apple Standard EULA, you receive only a limited right to use the App for personal, non-commercial purposes. No ownership rights are transferred to you.

The names, logos, products, and services of Apple and other third parties remain the property of their respective owners.

8. Privacy

Our processing of information in connection with Imaano is described in the Imaano Privacy Policy.

Apple independently processes App Store purchases and related information under Apple's own terms and privacy policy.

9. Suspension and Termination

You may stop using Imaano at any time. Stopping use or deleting the App does not automatically cancel an active subscription; subscriptions must be cancelled through Apple.

Your right to use the App may end if you materially violate these Terms or the Apple Standard EULA. Where reasonably possible and legally required, we will take proportionate action and respect applicable consumer rights.

Sections that by their nature should continue after termination, including intellectual-property provisions, payment obligations already incurred, disclaimers, and limitations of liability, will remain effective.

10. Disclaimers and Liability

The warranties, disclaimers, and limitations of liability in the Apple Standard EULA apply to Imaano.

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the App and its content are provided on an “as is” and “as available” basis. We do not guarantee uninterrupted availability, compatibility with every device or operating-system version, or that all content will be free from errors.

Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits liability, warranties, remedies, or consumer rights where doing so would be prohibited by applicable law.

11. Third-Party Services and Links

Imaano relies on services provided by third parties, including Apple and Google Firebase, and may include links to third-party pages. Those services and pages are governed by their own terms and policies. We are not responsible for third-party services beyond the extent required by applicable law.

12. Changes to the App or These Terms

We may update the App and these Terms to reflect changes to features, subscriptions, service providers, security requirements, Apple’s rules, or applicable law.

The current version will be posted at:

<https://renahub.com/imaano/terms>

The effective date at the top will be updated when material changes are made. Where required by law, we will provide additional notice or request consent before a change takes effect.
